Attention: This is an official court order. If you disobey this order, the court may find you in contempt. You may also be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of stalking and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this order.

This injunction will be presumed valid until superseded by a subsequent order.

The court has reviewed Petitioner's Petition for Stalking Injunction and has determined that there is reason to believe that an offense of stalking has occurred and the Respondent is the stalker.

Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 77-3a-101, the court therefore orders as follows:

1. The Respondent is enjoined from stalking Petitioner. According to Utah Code

Ann. § 77-3a-106.5. Stalking is defined as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Course of conduct" means repeatedly maintaining a visual or physical proximity to a person or repeatedly conveying verbal or written threats or threats implied by conduct or a combination thereof directed at or toward a person.

(b) "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, child, sibling, or any other person who regularly resides in the household or who regularly resided in the household within the prior six months.

(c) "Repeatedly" means on two or more occasions.

(2) A person is guilty of stalking who:

(a) intentionally or knowingly engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person:

(i) to fear bodily injury to himself or a member of his immediate family; or

(ii) to suffer emotional distress to himself or a member of his immediate family;

(b) has knowledge or should have knowledge that the specific person:

(i) will be placed in reasonable fear of bodily injury to himself or a member of his immediate family; or

(ii) will suffer emotional distress or a member of his immediate family will suffer emotional distress; and

(c) whose conduct:

(i) induces fear in the specific person of bodily injury to himself or a member of his immediate family; or

(ii) causes emotional distress in the specific person or a member of his immediate family.

(3) A person is also guilty of stalking who intentionally or knowingly violates a stalking injunction issued pursuant to Title 77, Chapter 3a, Stalking Injunctions, or intentionally or knowingly violates a permanent criminal stalking injunction issued pursuant to this section.

2. Respondent is enjoined from going near the following addresses frequented by Petitioner:

residence: _____

work: _____

other: _____

3. Respondent is restrained from contacting the Petitioner, directly or indirectly, through any form of communication including written, oral, or electronic means, and the Respondent is restrained from contacting the following persons:

4. Other:

Notice to Respondent:

- a. You may request, in writing, a hearing to contest this order.
- b. You must file your request at the following Courthouse:

- c. The hearing should be requested within 10 days from the date that the order is served on you.
- d. If you fail to request a hearing within 10 days, this order will become a civil stalking injunction which will not expire until 3 years after it is served.
- e. You may request a hearing after the 10 day period, but you will have the burden of challenging the injunction.
